Email: info@marksarale.com

A longtime resident of Stockton, California, Mark Sarale attended Tokay High School where he played both football and basketball. Early on in his career path, he served four years as a computer operator in the United States Air Force, stationed at multiple bases both domestically and abroad. After leaving the military in 1986 at the rank of sergeant, Mark Sarale returned to Stockton where he served as a delivery route truck driver with Nor-Cal Beverage and Laura Scudders.

Since 1996, Mark Sarale has served as a franchisee with Max Muscle Sports Nutrition. Although he owned and operated seven Max Muscle stores at one point, he has since scaled back to three stores in order to spearhead new expansion as the Max Muscle regional director for Northern California.

In 2018, Mr. Sarale took on additional responsibilities as a franchisee with Nekter Juice Bar. He currently operates a single Nekter store in Stockton and is planning to open eight more locations within the next five years.
