Throughout his career as a law enforcement professional, Chris Throgmorton has shown himself to be a dedicated and highly capable leader. He spent the better part of a decade as an officer in the California Highway Patrol (CHP), where he achieved department goals of maximizing public service and rendering assistance to allied agencies. During his time as a CHP officer, Christopher Throgmorton trained new officers, handled briefings, issued equipment, and organized a vehicle theft investigation course in accordance with the tenets of the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. In recognition of his accomplishments, Throgmorton received numerous Awards of Excellence from the Moorpark, California, Chamber of Commerce.

Today, Christopher Michael Throgmorton attends Arizona State University, where he plans to earn his interdisciplinary studies degree in business and communication. He also contributes to a number of nonprofit organizations, including the Be The Match Foundation and the Children's Hospital of Orange County. In his free time, he enjoys running, weight training, and practicing martial arts.
