Michael Intoccia is a respected presence in the Sharon, Massachusetts, community who has guided numerous real estate projects. A longtime golf enthusiast, Michael Intoccia has focused his recent development efforts with investors are on the former Ballymeade Country Club, now known as The Cape Club Resort in Falmouth.

Featuring a world class driving range, the course also has a fully renovated clubhouse ideal for bridal and corporate events. Phase Two will span hotels, villas, and a host of additional upgrades. Mr. Intoccia is constantly on the lookout for property seeking to acquire desirable resort properties throughout Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Another current project he is involved is The Cape Club of Sharon, which has been remodeled and open since April, welcoming new members. With a second phase on the horizon, the focus is on developing a new fitness facility, restaurant, and more than 50 townhomes. Michael Intoccia also guides the development of Christina Estates in North Attleboro, a 106-home subdivision that includes custom units within the $500,000 to $800,000 range.
